Mrs. Mary W. Mills.

OBITUARY.

Julius F. Volkman.

About midnight Wednesday, the death of Julius F. Volkman occurred after a long illness. He was 48 years of age and had resided in this city most of his life. He was a pressman by trade and had worked in local printing offices and at Bridgeport, although of late he had an office at his home, No. 45 Main street. He was a competent player and had played in Tab-bald here and with a Bridgeport band.
For two seasons he was on the road as cornetist with Her Atonement company. He was a man of pleasing disposition and bore his long illness without complaining. He made a brave fight for life and worked as long as he was able.

He is survived by his wife, his mother, Mrs. Augusta Troland and a daughter, Marjorie, of this city. He leaves four half-brothers, Grant, Henry L., Charles and Daniel Troland, and a half-sister, Mrs. E. A. Chapman, of this city.

In the Probate Court.

In the probate court on Thursday the will of James H. Smith was admitted to probate, by which all is left to Mrs. Smith. William Jennings was named in the will as executor, but his death occurred a number of years ago and Frank J. King was named as administrator with will annexed. John A. Bowen and William H. Allen were named as appraisers.

In the estate of Horace H. Shedd administrator has been granted over W.
S. Allen named as the administrator.

Excavating at Academy.

The excavation at the Academy for the foundations for the addition to the main building is proceeding rapidly.
The dirt taken out is carted over to the farthest corner of the campus, making a mound that shortens up left field on the ball grounds, but it will be spread out so as to interfere as little as possible with playing the game.

PERSONAL.

Amos C. Cutler was a visitor at the capitol on Thursday.

John McDonough of Mystic made a business trip to Norwich this week.

Miss Lucy Hyde of Williamantic is spending a few days with Mrs. Charles Peckham of Franklin.

Wilhelm Heinrich of Boston was a visitor in Norwich this week, and called on several local musicians.

Miss Amy Hatten, cashier of the Mohan company, in this city, was the guest of relatives in Boston Wednesday.

Representative Jodoin of Battle has gone to New York to undergo an operation. He expects to be back in the legislature next week.

At the wedding of Miss Grace As-plund and David Cushman on Wednesday the bride wore a semi-princess gown of white silk and carried bridal roses, while the bridesmaid wore blue silk and carried carnations.

Addison Schofield of Lafayette street is recovering rapidly from a painful injury to his wrist. Mr. Schofield was so unfortunate to cut deeply into his wrist, nearly two weeks ago with a rusty iron hook, but owing to careful treatment no ill effects were experienced.

TROLLEYMEN'S UNION.

Well Attended Dance in St. Mary's T.
A. B. Hall.

The Trolleyman's union, No. 262, gave a well attended private social on Thursday evening in T. A. B. hall, which was enjoyably carried out by the committee in charge. There were eighteen numbers on the programme, for which Baker's orchestra played.

The following officiated on the committee: Master of ceremonies, Geo.
W. Leonard, floor director, Merrill Douglass; aids, N. J. Fournier, J. Carter, Charles Flanagan, Arthur Gordon, John Edwards, Harry McGone; reception, William B. Barwell, William Sweet, H. Doney, Sidney Kniffin, Dennis Connelly, Austin Neary; arrangement, Merrill Douglass, W. B.
Barwell, George W. Leonard, R. D.
Harris, Charles Flanagan, J. Carter.

WEDDINGS.

Prentice—Champion.

A quiet but pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T.
H. Smith, 59 Broadway, New Haven, on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Dancy Roundy of the Wethersfield Avenue Congregational church, Hartford, when Mrs. Annie Champion of Groton was united in marriage to Edmund A. Prentice of Norwich, in the presence of their relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride wore a tailored gown of blue, with hat of that color, and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentice left for a wedding journey, and upon their return will reside at 88 Cliff street, Norwich.
Both are well known in this city.
Mr. Prentice having for many years conducted a hat and men's furnishing store here, but of late has been engaged in the real estate business and settling estates. The bride has lived in Norwich some time and has a host of friends here.

FUNERALS.

Mrs. Alvan Bussey.

At 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon the funeral of Mrs. Alvan J. Bussey was held from her late home, No. 87 Cliff street, the house being filled with relatives and friends, including relatives from Hartford and Putnam. The services were conducted by Rev. Joseph F. Cobb, pastor of the Universalist church, who made an address. Under the direction of Miss Carrie E.
Champion in the choir of the Universalist church, Miss Mary E. Rogers, Mrs.
George W. Beebe, Byron Mathies and Charles W. Parsons, sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Some Time We'll Understand." There were many beautiful and choice floral forms. Burial was in Yantic cemetery, where a committal service was read. The bearers were Capt. George C. Crocker, Charles D. Crocker of Hartford, Burrill W.
Lathrop and Willard A. Church. Funeral Director Gager had charge of the arrangements.

Biennial Election for Town Officers

Finance Committee Favors the Plan for Assessors and School Visitors—Salary for Court Messenger—Dr.
Donahue for Trustee.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Hartford, April 29.—At length a legislative committee has given serious consideration to the measure by which the town of Norwich will be permitted to elect its assessors and school visitors every two years, as it has voted to do with the rest of its town officers. This measure went over to the finance committee on the judiciary, but that committee for some reason didn't care to handle it and under the plea that it had sufficient matters before it to make it impossible to get at this for some time, turned it over to the finance committee, which held a hearing on it this afternoon. The judiciary committee has once gone all over the matter, which properly belongs to it, and could have reported it as well as not, but chose not to.

Town Clerk Charles S. Holbrook and Town Attorney Amos A. Browning appeared to represent the town, and it was explained to the committee that the town of Norwich had started in to have biennial elections for its officers as well as the city officers and that all that were left now outside the pale of this change are the assessors and the school visitors. To elect these every year would cost the town of Norwich about $2,000 a year, the same amount, practically, as would be required to have a full town election.

The last legislature passed a law under which any town that chooses may elect its town officers biennially instead of annually, and it is under this situation that the town of Norwich has made this change. The town of two sets of officers is not fully covered by the law, however, and special legislation is required.

This bill provides that there shall be a board of school visitors nine in number, who shall be elected biennially, three at a time, and for one assessor to be elected on the first Monday in next October, to hold office for six years, the assessor elected in 1907 to hold office until 1912 and the assessor elected in 1908 to hold office until 1911.
The finance committee has voted to report favorably on the matter.

mission for the superior court was sent

SUDDEN DEATH OF
OWEN M'GRATH.

Had Been Sick, But Was Out on Thursday Evening and Was Stricken in Cedar Street.

The many friends of Owen Mc-Grath will be pained to learn of his death, which occurred suddenly on Thursday evening about 8:30 o'clock from pneumonia. He had not been well and had been under the doctor's care for two weeks. He accidentally fell overboard from a boat which he had just launched a fortnight ago and caught cold, but was at work on Wednesday, and on Thursday evening was about the city. He boarded at Mrs.
McGrath's house, in Franklin street, but not wanting to stay alone, Mr. Bedard had persuaded him to go to his home, in Cedar street, and although urged to ride, he desired to walk. Near the jail he complained of feeling worse, and was carried home there to Mr. Bedard's house, where he lived but fifteen minutes. Dr. P. J.
Casey being called to attend him.

The deceased was born in Middletown 42 years ago, and was a builer, and for the past four years had been employed at the Norwich Nickel & Brass works. He is survived by a brother, William McGrath of Middletown, an inspector for the Connecticut company. He was informed of his brother's death Thursday night, and will come here today.

The deceased was well known in this city, having made many friends during his stay here by his jovial and kind nature.

Incidents in Society

Miss Faith Caruthers entertained the Sewing club on Wednesday.

Mrs. Lucius Briggs has been spending a few days in Providence.

Mrs. Archibald Mitchell of Broadway was a recent visitor in Hartford.

Archdeacon J. E. Brown of Otis street has been in New Haven this week.

Miss Mabel S. Webb of Rockwell terrace has returned from a short stay in New Haven.

The Wednesday Afternoon Bridge club met this week with Mrs. W. Tyler Olcott of Church street.

Miss Alexandrine N. Trumbull of Perkins avenue has returned from several weeks' visit in New Haven and New York.

Perceval White of Boston has returned after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. White of Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Allen and daughter of Huntington place are on a trip to Washington and Old Point Comfort, Va.

Rev. J. P. Jones, D. D., of Madura, India, came to Yantic on Thursday to be the guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hyde.

Mrs. George Fletcher Bard of Washington street has sent out cards for an afternoon of bridge and one of whist on Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

Miss Nannie B. Ward is the guest of Mrs. Lucius Tuttle of Boston, and has also been visiting Mrs. R. B. Traft Newton Center, Mass., a summer resident of Decatur Bluffs, on the Thames.

Mrs. William Tyler Olcott of Church street entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge club this week and a few wether guests, making six tables in all. The first prize, a brass jardiniere, was taken by Mrs. Frank S.
Bunnell and the second, a brass candlestick, by Miss Helen Robinson.

William Donohue Taken In.
On Thursday two men went into a West Side second-hand store, and while one was in back looking at some clothes, the one in front lifted a pair of trousers. The proprietor got wise and chased the fellow, who dropped them.
The two men later got together and after the fellow had been informed separated. William Donohue, aged 52, of Providence, was one of the two, and was placed under arrest. It is understood that the fellow who took the trousers escaped.

Summer and Winter.
A Cliff street man wearing his overcoat was noticed running his lawn mower on Thursday. Before he got the grass raked up the snow storm arrived.

Draperies!

Prettier Than Ever

That is the verdict passed upon our Draperies by those who have seen the line this season, and the assortment is so much more varied in the low and medium price as well as the higher priced materials and curtains ready-made; the only difficulty you will experience in making your purchase in this department is the oft repeated one, "There are so many pretty ones I don't know which to choose."

We mention below a few of the most attractive from the many new things in this department this season.

Casement Cloth and Stenciled Berins in an endless variety of patterns and colors, are irresistibly pretty for living room, dining room, bedroom and cottage draperies—19c, 20c, 22c, 25c and 27c per yard.

Splendid showing of Imported Madras and Domestic Laces by the yard—these are used very extensively and make pretty inexpensive curtains—19c to 85c per yard.

Nottingham Lace Curtains, not the old fashion; heavy, all-over patterns that mother used to buy, but fine Brussels lace, Marie Antoinette and Italian fillet effects, particularly in those that are priced from $1.55 to $6.75 per pair.

Cluny Lace and Antique Lace, made up in scrolls and cable, net, Irish Point, Brussels and Swiss Tambour Lace Curtains—$1.95 to $18.00 per pair.

Portieres, $2.50 to $16.50 per pair.

Couch Covers, 89c to $12.00 each.

Shades, any size to order. Estimates given and measures taken free.

THIS SEASON'S
LACES

Important Showing of New Laces That Have Caught the Spirit of Low Pricing.
